On Thursday the 11th of October we celebrated the 20th anniversary of the blessing and opening of the Parish Church. Below is an excerpt from the booklet used on the day:

Today as we open and bless our new Church we renew our own baptismal promises and we welcome into our Christian family the two babies baptised here today in our new font.

The Font is designed on the traditional symbol of the Holy Trinity- three circles intertwined. It will be a permanent water feature in our Church. Water is such a powerful and important symbol for us as Christians – we seek God's cleansing and renewal today.

Serving Our Siblings in the Lord

Christians ...Go to meet the poor and the weak, not to obey a ...programme, but because the word and the example of the Lord tell us that we are all brothers and sisters
Pope Francis, General Audience, Feb. 18, 2015

Mother Theresa used to go out to the poor and suffering every day. But she didn't go to serve them just because she was nice or felt sorry for them. She ministered to them and cared for them because she saw the face of Jesus in them.

When it seems too hard to care for the weak and poor, or we just don't feel like it, let's ask Christ to show us his face in them!

The Hook Of Faith: This Week's Content

Check out the latest resources for this week at www.thehookoffaith.com This week features a homily for this 28th Sunday of Ordinary Time where Jesus encounters the rich young man and invites him leave his wealth behind and follow him. Our interview this week is with Mr. John Cleary who worked as a missionary in South America in the 1970's who reflects on the significance of this Sunday's canonization of Oscar Romero, Pope Paul VI and beatification of three Argentinian martyrs who were killed during the dirty war in 1976. There is a feature on St Teresa of Avila who feast is next Monday including her best known quotes. There is a feature to mark the Ferns Diocesan Pilgrimage to Fatima and finally an inspiring video by Jean Vanier on the 10 rules for life.
